

Please reject this clear attempt to restrict competition. Satellite radio provides a service that broadcast radio cannot. It is a great benefit to the public to be able to get traffic information instantly, more completely, and with more detail, than anything on broadcast radio.